Prologue

The Ram '88 is live and in living color to introduce this year's theme. Chill out, relax, and let us mesmerize you with RAM ANIMATION.

Student Life

Independence is a new and maturing experience for many students. However, through self confidence we proved that we can make it ON OUR OWN.

18

Academics

Sleepless nights. Headaches. Tears. Hunger. Hectic days. And worst of all exams, but don't worry: THIS IS ONLY A TEST!

44

People

Students display a vivid picture of life at Winston-Salem State University to form a variety of colors that shine through in ALL OF US.

66

Athletics

If you want to win, you have to sacrifice and work. Follow our example in SO HARD TO BE A RAM.

118

Clubs

Initiations, lines, parties, and songs, but don't forget to show your university ID at the door. This section is for MEMBERS ONLY.

146

Closing

This concludes our presentation of RAM ANIMATION. "For the next edition, tune in to WSSU '89."

Chancellor and Mrs. Cleon F. Thompson, Jr.

Winston-Salem State University
WINSTON-SALEM NORTH CAROLINA 27110

Office of the Chancellor

May, 1988

Dear Student:

No other medium matches the university yearbook for preserving memories of what will become your "good ol' days". Formal pictures and candid shots serve to freeze forever best friends and mere acquaintances, the fun at the plots, a chemistry experiment gone slightly awry or a few solemn moments in the residence hall.

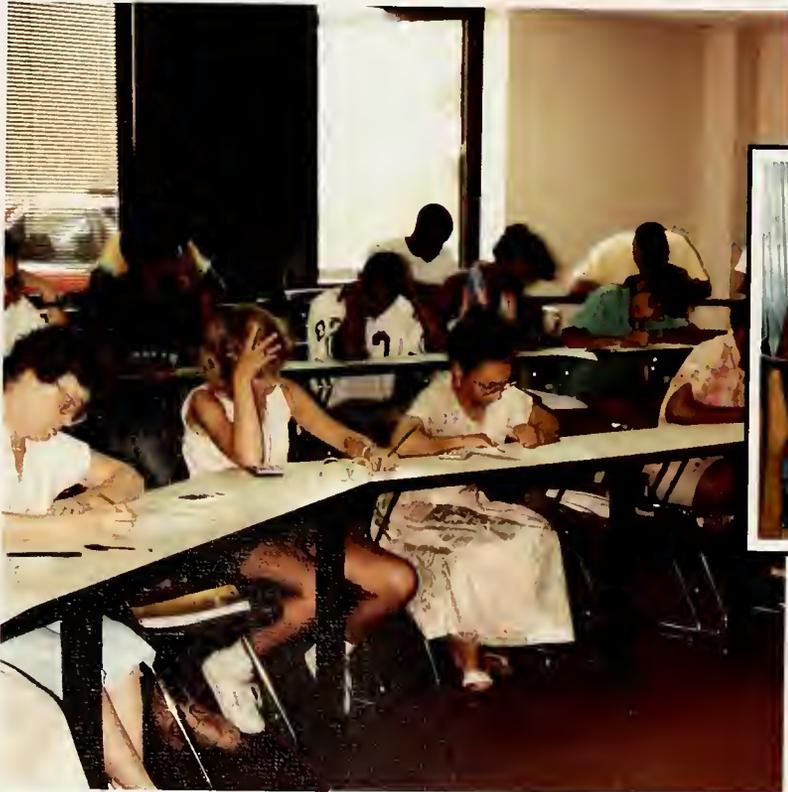

I wish for each of you the warmest and most pleasant recollections of your years at Winston-Salem State University and congratulate you on achieving another level in your pursuit of a college degree. If you're a graduating senior, I look forward to your continued interest and support as an alumnus. If you're a returning student, I encourage you to keep your goal in focus, and continue to strive for it.

With warmest regards,

Cleon F. Thompson, Jr.
Cleon F. Thompson, Jr.
Chancellor

*Get the most from each hour, each day and
each age of your life.
Then you can look forward with confidence and look back without regrets.*

The university has a standing commitment to maintain a high standard of excellence in its academic offerings, to stimulate intellectual inquiry, and to provide students with the concepts and skills to meet the challenges of today's society.

Be yourself — but be your best self. Dare to be different and follow your own star.

Whatever your interests, you'll find yourself getting involved with fun activities at WSSU. There are more than 80 student organizations on campus including: honor societies, professional associations, religious groups, hobby and sports clubs, and 20 fraternities, sororities, and social groups.

In the words of our prominent Vice Chancellor For Student Affairs, Dr. Haywood L. Wilson, Jr. "Stroll our picturesque campus, view the exciting exhibits, take part in the recognition of our high achievers . . . make yourselves at home because you are very much a part of this WSSU family."

*And don't be afraid to be happy. Enjoy what is beautiful.
Love with all your heart and soul.
Believe that those you love, love you.*

The years you spend in college are some of the most important years of your life as new challenges help you grow into the person you want to become. At Winston-Salem State University, academic excellence and a lively campus atmosphere assure that you advance toward your goals confidently. In all of your endeavors . . . academic, athletic, and social . . . you learn the life-long habit of success.

*Forget what you have done for your friends and remember what they have done for you.
Disregard what the world owes you and concentrate on what you owe the world.*

When you are faced with a decision make that decision as wisely as possible then forget it. The moment of absolute certainty never arrives.

Above all remember that God helps those who help themselves. Act as if everything depended on you, and pray as if everything depended on God.

To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to read, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Jacquelyn Robinson, Mia Wilson, Linda Brown, Pamela Watts, Yvette Scott

"Live To Learn For Tomorrow's Success" was the motto that inspired the Class of 1988. From our initial introduction to the campus of Winston-Salem State University, we were made aware that learning was the key to our future success.

As freshmen, it was our turn to experience the ups and downs of college life. We had to reckon with academic challenges which were different from what our high schools had presented. Nevertheless, we threw ourselves into the college scene with all of the youthful spirit we could muster. Some of us joined the university's marching band and the football team. Others became active with the Mr. Ram Pageant, the Coronation festivities, and other social events. Those of us who were intellectually inclined attended the cultural events and learned about things which we had only imagined. Class officers were elected to lead us and we were exposed to the intricacies of the political process through participation in the Student Government Association. Mrs. Johnetta Huntley was selected to serve as our advisor and Dawn Hand took the helm as class president. Yvette Shoats and Robin Huntley were our SGA representatives. Sharin King was Miss Freshman. Class activities in that first year included attending Black College Day, acclimating ourselves to the social and academic environment, and celebrating becoming sophomores with a pizza party. We had arrived and had succeeded in being accepted as a part of the Ram Family.

As sophomores, we were prepared for bigger challenges. Under the guidance of our class president, Micheal Smith, we embarked on bold new paths. We began a tradition with our first Toga Party. We raised funds for the class treasury with a Dating Game Show and branched out by co-sponsoring a spring social with A&T State University. Some of us excelled in academics, others in athletics. The high point of our second year was the inauguration of Cleon F. Thompson, Jr. as chancellor of the university. A new day had dawned at Winston-Salem State University and we were part of it.

We began our junior year by looking towards the future and taking steps to obtain that all important college degree.

Terrence Howard
President

Mrs. Phyllis Grace
Class Advisor

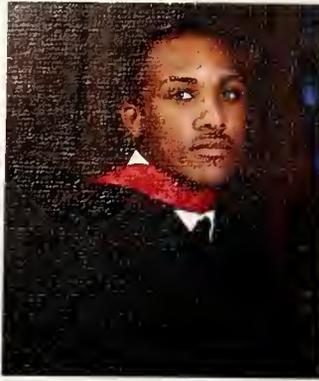

The Career Services Office kept us abreast of job fairs, resumé writing workshops, company interviews, summer internships, and Cooperative Education experiences. Duane Morris led our class as its president. Angela McIntyre was class queen. As upperclassmen, Homecoming was exciting. We were now involved in fraternities and sororities and had passed into adulthood. The sophistication that we had gained allowed us to end the year with a Junior Class Dinner and a burning desire to begin our senior year.

We made it to the top with the beginning of the 1987-1988 academic year. The year began with Marla Blunt taking over as president of the Student Government Association, and Lisa Stewart representing us as Miss

Winston-Salem State University.

We made it to the top with the beginning of the 1987-1988 academic year. We were seniors. The year began with Marla Blunt taking over as president of the Student Government Association and Terrence Howard and Yvette Scott assuming roles as class president and senior class queen, respectively. Our thoughts turned outward as we began to anticipate entering the work or furthering our education in graduation and became fully aware of the meaning of the motto of our alma mater, "Enter to Learn, Depart to Serve."

Smile for the camera Heather

He's ready to be a Ram

You must be burning in that suit

Do you feel a draft?

Tonight?

I can't understand how some brothers go barrels just to talk to their ladies.

Whenever I receive some class hours I'll start studying.

Sorry Ladies, the only thing in the refrigerator is bread and water.

I hope that I put down the right cards.

This year the Rams overcame what was thought to be one of the toughest seasons. The team lost one of the best players ever — Donald Evans, a defensive end for last year's Rams and the top pick of the Los Angeles Rams in the May '87 NFL draft. Hayes wondered who would be capable of taking his place. Also, the Rams lost key players from the team — Derrick Beasley, Joseph Bartley, Dana Walker, Masha Paul, Leroy Wonsley and Leonardo Horn. This season unfolded solutions to the worries and questions of Coach Hayes and the remaining coaching staff.

The Rams demolished Bowie State — 24 to 3. What a way to begin a season! Nevertheless, the game against NC A&T was a “flip side.” A crowd of 22,000 turned out to see just what could happen this year. It seemed as though the Aggies’ plays were tough to play up against. Lonnie Pulley only gained 86 yards for 20 carries. Handsome 6 carries — 69 yards and 1 touchdown, Junior 4 carries — 2 yards with 9 completions in 19 attempts for 90 yards and three interceptions. The game was a defensive battle. Both teams took advantage of the other's mistakes.

The Rams' determination to make this the best season was not shaken by the Aggies' defeat over them. The Rams' offense improved even more in the game against Fayetteville State before a crowd of 4,002. They piled up 356 total yards and scored two touchdowns within 30 seconds in the first period. The Rams improved their record to 3-0 in the CIAA and 3-1 overall. The result of this game — Rams 28, Fayetteville Broncos ZIP!

From here the Rams traveled to Norfolk to defeat the Spartans 36-20. Conell Maynor, quarterback for the Rams, ran for three touchdowns and threw for another to lead the Rams. Hayes, when interviewed by journal reporter G.I. Wooding III, credited his offensive line with controlling the trenches against the Spartans. Picture this: 1:15 left in the 4th quarter, Maynor rolls right and scampers down the sideline for a 15 yard touchdown — made it! Rams 36, Norfolk 20.

This must be Winston-Salem State's best football team of all-time! The Rams put N.C. Central to shame with a 25-0 victory. The victory was WSSU's 11th straight CIAA regular-season victory, stretching over the past two years. And it was the fourth straight win this season. This was more than a victory. It was a showcase for Hayes' freshman quarterback Connell Maynor.

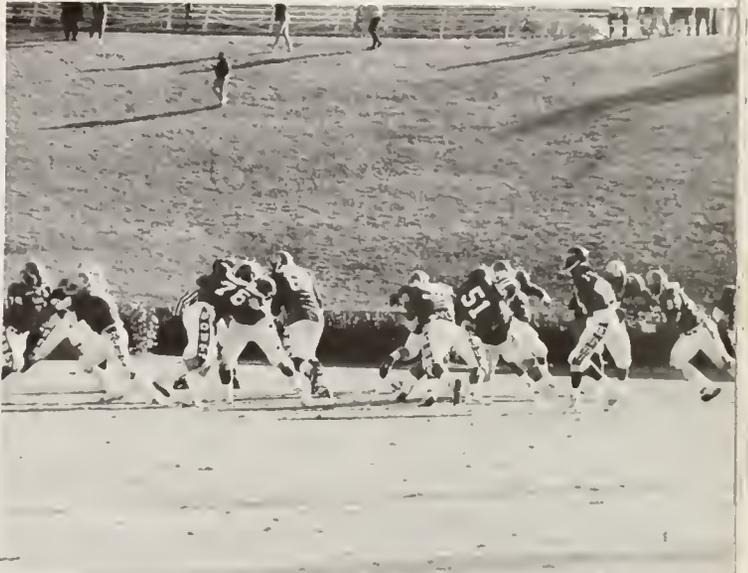

The Rams loaded the buses to travel to Middle Tennessee for an 11-8 victory. Although the Rams only managed one touchdown, they used their size advantage in the trenches to pile up 401 yards total offense — 387 of it on the ground. Maynard spent much of his playing time leading the way for fullback Lonnie Pulley, who rolled up 210 yards in 27 carries. Broderick Graves gained 100 yards on 26 carries. The Rams improved to 6-1 overall and remained 5-0 in the CIAA.

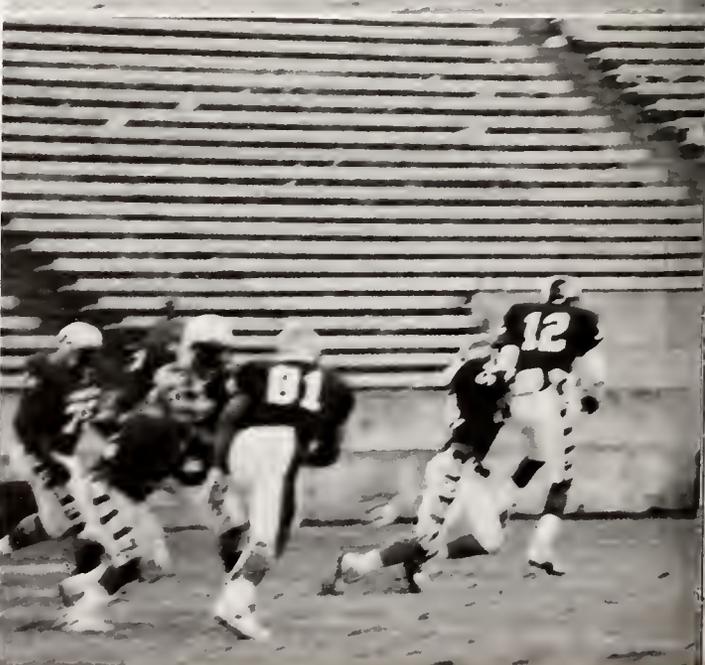

The Rams were placed on a pedestal. Here they were in a position faced only once before — the Division II Playoffs. WSSU vs Troy State (Alabama). This game marked the Rams' second appearance in the NCAA. Coach Bill Hayes' team last earned a berth in the playoffs in 1978, when they won the CIAA Championship with a 10-0 regular season mark. The Rams broke their fourth-year jinx and won the CIAA Championship game with a 22-12 victory over Hampton University. The Rams have now won the CIAA Southern Division championship five consecutive years, a league record.

During the five-year period, the Rams have not lost a game within the Southern Division. Results of this game — Troy State 45, WSSU 14. The Rams finished the season '9-3 and wearing the CIAA crown.

Low-key physician is propelled to fame as NASA's first Black woman astronaut candidate

IT'S Dr. Mae C. Jemison's last day on the job. While co-workers quietly scurry about in preparation for a surprise going-away gathering, Dr. Jemison carefully checks her make-up and clothing for yet another interview. For almost a month, interviews with electronic and print media from around the country have been a way of life for the Los Angeles physician. The low-key general practitioner says suddenly she is sometimes recognized by strangers on the street.

Senior Tributes

Alma Mater

*As we go forth from old State U.
A song of praise we sing to you,
In praises to the memory
Of days at State University.*

*Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we here have gained.
Exultingly we raise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.*

*As we go forth from old State U.
Good leaders we will always be.
And stand for all humanity,
As you've taught us, State University.*

*In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy teaching fame,
As we go forth we praise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.*

The Battle for the King Holiday

Still, the King holiday, in 1988 is not met with universal acceptance. Last year, Arizona's newly elected and Governor Evan Mecham rescinded the former Governor's executive order and nullified a paid state holiday. He claimed that racism was not the basis of his decision; economics was. He said Arizona, one of the highest per capita income states in the nation, could not afford another paid holiday. And when the onslaught of criticism prompted many large organizations to cancel conventions slated for the cactus state, the Governor still didn't budge prompting many to speculate whether "economics" really had anything to do with it at all.

Slowly but surely, perseverance and political clout won out as cities and states nationwide found it "wise and prudent" to enact the pertinent legislation to secure Dr. King well deserved immortality.

"One of the most basic weapons in the fight for social justice will be the cumulative political power of the Negro."
Martin Luther King (1968)

"We must develop, from strength, a situation in which government finds it wise and prudent to collaborate with us. It would be the height of naivete to wait passively until the administration had somehow been infused with such blessings of good will that it implored us for our programs."

Martin Luther King (1967)

From the Editor's Desk

Animation defined in Webster's Dictionary means life. Ram Animation is a depiction of this year's theme because life itself is precious and filled with golden memories. Different phases of Ram Animation have been captured and suspended in time for your enjoyment.

Winston-Salem State University prepares students for life in the real world. In order to be successful, students need self confidence, intellectual fulfillment and critical minds.

To the Winston-Salem University '88 graduates I salute and wish you the best of luck.

Winston-Salem State University, despite hectic deadlines, mislocated material, tears, sweat and other tribulations, this yearbook is proof that there is a God.

My personal gratitude goes out to my family, Lora Poyner, Scott Garris, Dempsey Bond, Stephen Williams, Kim Campbell, Darlene Hutto, the yearbook staff, Mr. Bailey and Ms. Douglas.

It is my hope that Ram Animation is enjoyed and thoroughly appreciated.
